21/03/18

I can measure a volume of water accurately.

I can use language associated with capacity.

Children used a variety of containers and poured in a given amount of liquid. They had to use vocabulary such as 'millilitres', 'half full', 'nearly full' and 'amount'.

They challenged each other to pour in an amount that wasn't as obvious, e.g. 450ml.

