Year 2

Problem solving

Solve problems involving multiplication and division, using materials, arrays, repeated addition, mental methods, and multiplication and division facts, including problems in context

The children use apparatus to solve this problem practically:

You have 30 counters.

How many equal groups can you make?

Represent your groups as a number sentence.

